Sophisticated travelers with a keen sense for interior design will find their stay here exceedingly pleasing. This villa is part of Cuatro Casas, a private enclave of four luxurious residences set against a backdrop of steep jungle hillsides overlooking the sun-drenched beaches and coves of Puerto Vallarta.

Exquisitely furnished, massive walls in pastel shades curve softly, enveloping the living space. The ground floor offers living room, dining room, fully-equipped kitchen and powder room, all with antique hand-hewn beamed ceilings. The master suite on the second floor boasts a fireplace, his-and-her bath with jacuzzi and a cupola shower overlooking the sea. Two guest bedroom suites are poolside with en suite garden baths.

Remarkable features include fireplaces and the heated infinity swimming pool that appears to cascade directly into the azure waters of beautiful Banderas Bay.

This villa can be rented for extended parties by adding nearby Casa McFuego, Casa Escondida and/or Casa Ventura.
