

Carriage House

Claim this stunning pied-a-terre for the two of you. Just at the south edge of town and within walking distance to everything, you will be torn whether to spend the day basking at fabulous Playa de los Muertos Beach, bartering for trinkets at el Mercado on Rio Cuale, or visiting art galleries, talavera or glass shops. And why cook for yourself when there is an array of excellent restaurants to tantalize you with your favorite Mexican fare.

At day's end, return home to your private hideaway, where cool terra cotta tile floors enhance the elegantly appointed living room and sumptuous bedroom, both with balconies. Kick back with a frosty margarita while you watch through your peekaboo view over swaying palm fronts as the sun puts on another spectacle, painting the skies with purple hues beyond beautiful Banderas Bay.
