

Cielito

This luxurious beachfront villa surrounded by coconut palms and bougainvillea shares a one-mile white sand beach with several private villas, all totally private and secure, near the quaint Mexican village of San Pancho. Elegantly furnished in Mexican Colonial style, this magnificent waterfront showplace includes five air-conditioned bedrooms, each with its own master bath and panoramic view, expansive living room offering seating for ten and a fireplace for cool evenings, bar, kitchen, and large sweeping terraces surrounding an elaborate beachfront pool accented by a cozy thatched-roof palapa seating area. Gaze at the backdrop of the jungle-covered Sierra Madre mountains. Survey the azure expanse of the Pacific Ocean. Dine indoors or under the stars, listening to the surf breaking just below the terrace, outdoor bar and barbecue entertainment area. World-class golf is just a short drive away at Four Seasons Resort in Punta Mita. Fully staffed with cook, maids and gardeners, Casa Cielito is a perfect place for dreaming.
