

High above renowned Mismaloya Beach and the vast expanse of beautiful Banderas Bay, this multi-level villa is accented by the cantilevered pool which provides the dramatic illusion of being at the bow of an ocean liner at sea.

Comfortably furnished living areas also display the panoramic vistas of Los Arcos and the shimmering lights of the town of Puerto Vallarta in the distance. Handmade Mexican clay tiles mixed with marble and framed by hand-wrought iron balustrades display an earthy contrast to the peaceful, crystalline seas below.

Weary travelers can relax in harmony amid the comforts and charm of this home. Each of the three bedrooms has an en suite bath. The media room with full satellite TV hookup and VCR/CD player assures you of high-tech entertainment, and also provides additional sleeping accommodations for a child or nanny. Simply relax, unwind, gaze at the natural beauty all around, and enjoy this charming retreat from life's cares.
