

Along Puerto Vallarta's renowned Gold Coast, five minutes south of "old town," is one of the most unique and talked about waterfront estates to be rediscovered. Newly remodeled, this tropical hideaway combines both Old and New Worlds.

Behind private walls are lush gardens, an abundance of tropical flowers and cascading waterfalls. A huge palapa covers the expansive living room with ample seating, dining area, game and billiard tables. Five spacious guestrooms tastefully decorated provide all the comfort and conveniences of home. All levels are interconnected via private funicular, while each room and terrace greets visitors with amazing ocean views. Fall asleep to the sounds of the sea lapping at the shore, palm fronds swaying gently and cool evening breezes carrying the fragrances of tropical flowers to your dreams.

Las Palapas and full time staff provide guests with the opportunity to completely unwind and escape from the worries of the outside world. Treat yourself, your family and friends, or reward loyal staff with a stay in paradise – escape to Las Palapas.
