Enjoy the sound of the Pacific from the ocean-view villas of Four Seasons Residence Club Punta Mita, blending sophisticated Mexican style with exceptional Four Seasons standards.

Spacious interiors reflect local culture and heritage with rich wood detailing and stone flooring in intricate mosaics and pebbled patterns. Ocean views greet you the moment you walk into the foyer, and thirteen-foot vaulted ceilings in the living and dining rooms are accented by the fully furnished and luxuriously appointed decor. Savor the private infinity-edge plunge pool and expansive private terrace.

Four Seasons is set on the northern tip of Punta Mita, a peninsula facing both Banderas Bay and the Pacific Ocean. A gated sanctuary of 1,500 acres, this exclusive community includes a balance of homes, resorts and recreation amenities – carefully preserving the landscape’s tranquil atmosphere and pristine natural beauty. Featuring a secluded location at the southern edge, the Residence Club is steps to Four Seasons dining and amenities. Dedicated Four Seasons staff members are always on hand to provide assistance, while acclaimed amenities await your enjoyment.

With access to the amenities of Four Seasons Resort Punta Mita, your days and nights can be as active or as leisurely as you wish. Savor peaceful seclusion and rare privacy, then enjoy the abundant options of Four Seasons restaurants, spa, golf, tennis and swimming pools just steps from your Residence Club villa.
