

This gracious six-bedroom villa is set in an elegant walled estate on Santa Barbara street, just a short walk from all the charm and energy of the town of Puerto Vallarta and just steps from the beach.

The compound entrance is a set of imposing Moroccan doors, leading into a courtyard with heated swimming pool. The classic older villa has been lovingly renovated and professionally decorated, and includes a gourmet kitchen, air conditioning and all luxury amenities.

The villa is famous for the numerous outdoor living areas including the Fiesta terrace with wet bar, living and dining areas and space for 100 guests. Relax in the jacuzzi with expansive views of the blue Pacific.

Each of six air conditioned bedrooms includes king beds and en suite baths with garden or ocean views, and a full staff including private cook will see to your every wish.
